A map of the northern part of the city, likely Yokohama, showing the area around the Tsurumi River. Key landmarks labeled include '雲谷' (Wakamiya) at the top, '横谷橋' (Yokoizumi Bridge) and '寄積' (Yodoguchi) to the right, '新庄' (Shindou) in the center, '耳公民館新庄分館' (Shindou Community Center), '新庄高齢者福祉センター' (Shindou Senior Welfare Center), and '松屋' (Matsuya) at the bottom left. A blue box highlights the area around route 213, which is shown as a blue line with the number 213. The map uses a color-coded legend where green represents land and blue represents water.

This map illustrates the East Area (北側) of a coastal region, specifically focusing on the northern side of the coastline. The area is characterized by green land and blue water, with several key locations marked by red dots and labeled in red text. The coastline features several bays and inlets, including the Wakasa Bay (若狭湾) to the west and various beaches and residential areas further east. Two major roads are shown: Route 33 (国道33号) running vertically along the coast and a secondary road branching off towards the interior. The following locations are identified:
